Honouring Fatima Ghulam, Martyr of Words

During the Arab Reading Challenge ceremony, Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum honoured parents of 17-years-old : Fatima Ghulam, who died in an accident in Algeria. "Her dream was to have a library at home," her father said in a video broadcast during the event. "When she said she wanted to be a writer, people laughed at her. But she said I don't care what people say and I'll follow my dream." Her sister said she would stay up all night to read. "When people told her to go to sleep, she would say "leave me, let me read... let me dream". Sheikh Mohammed ordered a library to be established in her name.
