THE SECOND EXAM OF ENGLISH

TEXT:

Martin Luther King,The Man of Peace

Black Americans can do a lot of things that their parents could not do years ago because of racism . They can vote ,they can eat in any restaurant they like and their children can go to the same schools as white children. As we prepare ourselves to celebrate Martin Luther King Day next Monday ,we'll reproduce a part of King's address I Have a Dream in memory of this great leader who was able to combat racism and hatred with non-violence and love.

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia the sons of black and the sons of white will be able to sit down together at a table of brotherhood . I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the colour of their skins but by the content of their character.
