Text:

Life used to be simple

We still keep in mind 67 years ago when we were young. In those years, we were married. We used to live in a tiny village of 204 people.67 years ago, the roads were not built for cars so we went everywhere by train which used to take 5 hours to reach the nearest town and it was expensive. So we didn't use to move a lot. We used to live in our tiny village all the time; we didn't to use to watch television in 1950's. We used to go for a picnic all the time.

In some days, we went to the café and listened to the radio news with my wife and in other days, we used to spend wonderful moments with our friends and go for a walk. In old times, we wrote letters and postcards, we" didn't use to have telephones or mobiles like today. Those were the best years of our lives.
