Text:

Hello! I'm Lyna, I'm from Palestine but I live in Algeria. I am a pupil at Cherif Rabah Middle school in Algiers.

I like my school. It has good teachers and friendly pupils.

My school is big. It has sixteen classrooms, a school yard, and sport ground. There is also a canteen. It is next to the library. The teachers' room is between the computer room and the administration. We have also physics and science labs.

Pupils in my school have many rights and rules to follow. We have the right for free education and to express our opinions. We have to keep our school clean, we respect our teachers, our flag and we take care of our school material.

I am happy in my school. It is my second home.
