The Second Test of English

My friend Jill and I have been friends for a long time. We met when we were just fourteen years old. Through the years, we have shared a lot of great laughs and great experiences. She was with me when I graduated from high school. We were even roommates once. Jill has always supported me during the difficult times, too. She has always listened to me and she has always given me good advice. Last summer, we went on a trip to Spain together. We had a good time and we plan to travel together again in the future. We are fortunate that we have developed such a great friendship over the years. I feel lucky to have a friend like her.
