TEXT

Father of Algerian Nationalism

Ahmed Messali Hadj was an Algerian nationalist politician leader. This famous leader was born on May 16th, 1898 in Tlemcen, where he grew up, and learnt the Holy Quran and received a religious education and also educated in a local French primary school. Later, He founded the (ENA) "North African Star" (1926 - 1937), the (PPA) "Algerian People's Party" (1937 - 1939), before dissociating himself from the armed struggle for Independence in 1954. He also founded the (MNA) "Algerian National Movement" (1954) to counteract the on-going efforts of the (FLN) "National Liberation Front" (1954). He defended his land and protected the Algerian values, language and religion to keep the Algerians unified against their enemy.

Consequently, he became one of the most prominent Algerian nationalists seeking to remove all French forces and to end French colonial rule in Algeria. He died on June 3rd, 1974 in Paris, France.
