Third term English exam	Time: 03H

Ibn Sina was a famous scientist. He was born in the year 371 of the hegira, near Bukhara in what is now Republic of Uzbekistan. As a young boy, he read a lot about Islam and learnt the Koran by heart before he was ten years old. Later at school, he studied Arabic, literature and science and soon he knew more than his teachers. At 14, he studied medicine alone by reading hundreds of books.

Before he was 20, Ibn Sina was a well-known doctor. One of his patients was the sultan of Bukhara whom he treated for a serious illness. When he was cured, the sultan allowed him to use his private library in the palace. He improved his knowledge of medicine written by the Greek and Chinese doctors. At the same time he discovered Aristotle's book. He died at the age of 73. He had become world famous.
