providing that/as long as

Function

Linking words.

Warm up:

Let's refresh our minds with this example:

- We will eradicate corruption providing that we act now.
- My dreams will come true as long as they are chased.

Let's try with if:

- We will eradicate corruption if we act now!
- My dreams will come true if they are chased!

Challenge

Notice the tenses of the verbs and try to guess the rule!

Then, try to form sentences using the linking words highlighted in red.

Well done! ✓

Rule:

✓ The linking words: as long as, providing that, and provided that are used to express condition. They are similar to: if and only if.

✓ There are two clauses:

We will eradicate corruption providing that we act now.

Main/independent clause (if) subordinate clause

Future simple ---------- linking word ---------- present simple

(Rule simplified):

The main clause is the sentence that is independent and of full meaning. In other words, it doesn't need another clause. The subordinate clause is incomplete and depends on another clause to convey meaning.

You cannot say: "I will prepare dinner if I eat now"! Obviously, the act of cooking is a condition for you if you want to eat. Thus, you should say:

"I will have dinner providing that I start preparing it now".
