Text

At the present time, "road accidents" is the subject which attracts the attention of everybody. We know how dangerous the road has become. Statistics show that the number of road victims is increasing. This phenomenon has become famous.

On Friday, December 4th, 2015, as I was driving carefully to Wahran, I witnessed a tragic accident in Ain Defla. A car was hit by another one which was overtaking it. Other cars involved in the crash. Five passengers died and eight others were seriously injured.

When the police arrived on the scene, ambulances and fire brigades were already there. I personally think that the authorities must be strict with some drivers to make them more conscious about the harm they cause.
