Hi, my name is Bob Ferguson.I am from Chicago and I am a reporter for the Time Magazine, the famous American weekly magazine.I've been all over the world. I've been to Europe, to Africa, to Japan and to Brazil. I've been to Canada twice, but I've never been to Quebec. I'm going there next summer. But there are still many places I've never been to. I'd love to visit Australia and New Zealand.

The most fascinating report I've ever done was on the pygmies of Africa.Five years ago, I was doing a report in Africa and I've stayed with them for a month. The pygmies are the smallest people on earth. They are usually about 1.30 metre tall. They are very friendly, probably one of the friendliest people I've ever met.
