Over the past 50 years, lifestyles have changed. In old times, people used to wear simple and formal clothes, but now they dress up in trendy and stylish way.

People at that time, consumed fresh and home-cooked meals only. Today, they eat more fast and tinned food.

In terms of activities, people used to spend their free time watching TV, listening to Radio and reading books. Nowadays things have changed; people spend their time on social media and browsing the net.

As for games, children used to play collective outdoor games like hide and seek and marbles. Now, they all play video games on their Smartphones or computers at home such as Free fire and PUB-G.

To conclude, we can see that in the past, the way people lived was very different from today.
