TEXT

My first trip to Paris was a remarkable experience which I will never forget. I drove with my wife from London in the cold weather. It was a great feeling to arrive in Paris and see the city of light; a modern city with a very deep sense of history. I will never forget when I first drove through, passing canals and seeing the monuments. It was like a huge open- air museum.

I was fascinated seeing the famous landmarks and tasting the French food. We started our first journey there with a visit to the Opera House and we walked towards Place de la Concorde. We had lunch in a traditional restaurant in a street very close to the Champs-Elysées. We parked close by, so that I could watch my car easily. We ordered soupe à l'oignon, beef bourguignon and chocolate soufflé. The dishes were so tasty. The next morning, we walked around the small town. We did the shopping and took some photos.

We stayed in Paris for ten days where we had a fantastic time. I loved everything in Paris but we had to turn back to our home town.
