Stop Wasting Food

For the coming few weeks, Muslims will welcome the holy month of Ramadhan to carry out their duty of family.

This month is blessed for many reasons. Besides performing fasting, Muslims have the opportunity to obtain rewards for other good deeds, such as helping others, sharing food with neighbours and avoid wastage. But unfortunately some of our poor attitude and habits may spoil the prospect of attaining Allah's blessings. One of the bad habits is food wasting.

Based on the Solid Waste Management and Public Cleaning Corporation, data on food waste, the amount of food wasted in Ramadan is 15 to 20 per cent higher than the average month.

In Islam, there are many verses in the Quran and numerous habits on eating and matters associated with it. Food is seen as not only to fulfill one's need or hunger, but also as something that benefits our physical, mental and emotional well-being.

To Avoid wasting food, Muslims must uphold the true teaching of Islam especially moderation in buying, preparing and eating food. We must try our best not to waste food. Remember that, it is not easy to produce food. Food is blessing from Allah, thus do not waste it. Even more so in the glorious month of Ramadan, we must make an extra effort to avoid wasting food.
