Paul Johnson was driving home last Friday when he noticed a boy biking alone at that late time. At first, he didn't pay much attention, but very shortly things got wrong. While Paul was turning left, somehow the boy lost control of his bike. As Paul became aware of the boy's trouble, he tried to steer clear of the bike but it was too late. "While the bike was coming too fast, the boy seemed very frightened and not able to change its path", Paul told police officers later. When the boy fell, Paul hurried to help him. Fortunately, the crash wasn't hard enough, so the boy got only minor injuries.
