Second Term English Test

Text :

My favourite Teacher

I have got a very special teacher in my life. In my school life, I've changed a couple of schools and met with so many amazing teachers but never found someone like her. Yes, she is my favourite teacher. I'll write about her today.

Her name is Katrina Patel, from Delhi. I was a student of class five when I first met her. She was our class teacher. She used to teach us English . I have never seen someone speaking English well like her.

She was 26 years old . Her voice was really sweet and she used to recite poems and sing for us in the class. I really enjoyed that thing about her. She was very punctual and has never been late in class. Her teaching style was modern and a little bit different from another English teacher. She was innovative and modern.

She has got an amazing personality, which makes her attractive. Besides teaching, she used to write articles for local newspapers. Her favourite writing topic was history and I loved reading her writings. She was really motivating and marvellous personality that all the students liked. We respected her so much and she loved us, especially when we complete our homework.

I wish to meet Katrina again and spend some time with her.
