Project announcement

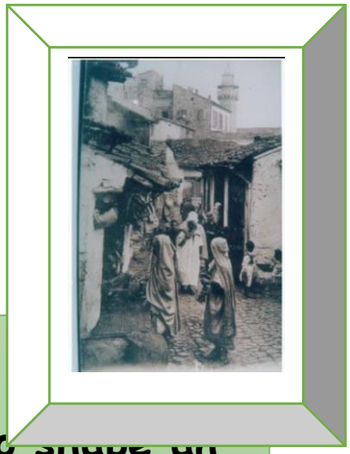

Your school magazine is organizing a contest of the best presentation of how life used to be 100 years ago in your city. You decided to participate.

Prepare a brochure or a video in which you collect pictures that illustrates life in the past.

The initial situation

lish teacher asked you to shape an album accompanied with descriptive passages in which you compare how

Life in some Algerian cities changes from the past and today: (traditions, food, transportation, houses clothes…etc.)
