The third term test

On July 1884, France gave the United States a gift to celebrate the one hundred years of independence . It was The Statue of Liberty which is considered as one of the most famous American landmarks. The statue is of a robed female figure representing Libertas, the Roman goddess of freedom.

The Liberty Statue standing in New York harbor was built in France by the sculptor Frédéric Auguste Bartholdi. The project took nine years and was finally completed in 1884. It was made of thin copper. The lady Liberty is 44 meters high. The head and the hand both measure five meters, the arm is thirteen meters and the index finger is two and a half meters long. Today, it is a universal symbol of freedom. Every year 15, 000 visitors come to see the Statue per day that's 4.2 million visitors per year!
