FIRST TERM TEST N°01

Text:

Palestinian student is winner of Arab Reading Challenge.

7.4 million Participants from 41,000 schools in 25 Arab countries participated in the challenge

Afaf Raed from Palestine was the winner of the second edition of the Arab Reading Challenge. Afaf aged 17, who is in grade 12 at Alberta High School in Palestine managed to read 50 Arabic books a year. She takes home a $150,000 cash prize, $100,000 of which will go to her university education and $50,000 to her family for their encouragement.

When a judge asked her before winning the prize about the reasons why she reads, she replied: "You ask me why I read. But I ask you why not to read? Reading adds life to our thoughts and minds. It is a lifestyle .Only by reading and words; we can solve the society's problems. She told the judging panel. Afaf thanked her family and people who supported her during her journey in the challenge. I want to become a scholar .I plan to study Medicine in the future. "I dedicate this win to Al Quads and Palestine."
