Belgacem Haba, the Algerian Of 650 Patents

Doctor Belgacem Haba was born on February 5th, 1957 in El-Meghaier, El-Oued. He is one of the most famous Algerian Materials science researcher. He joined Google Data Centre Platform in 2013. He was Vice President and Senior Fellow at Tessera/ Invensas since 1996. His latest activities while heading the Mobile R&D division include developing 3D technologies for mobiles and servers. Doctor Haba holds more than 200 U.S. patents, and more than 250 worldwide patents. In 2008, 2012, 2014 and 2015 he was listed among the top 100 inventors worldwide. He is intellectual, active, persevering, handsome, friendly, sensitive and eloquent, but he is a bit shy. After all this he became well-known, but he remained very modest and simple. He said: "Despite all my patents and money, I always feel inadequate, because I want to serve my country
