Part One: Reading (15 pts)

First Term Test

Dear Yasmine,

I've found your e-mail address on the internet this morning and I'm so pleased to correspond with an Algerian key-pal. Your country is getting more and more popular these days among the South- Africans. We are proud of the qualification of your national squad for 2010 World Cup. I'm eager to know more about you and your country. But I have to introduce myself first.

My name's Eliza. I'm 15 going to 16 years old and a first-year pupil of Experimental Sciences at Nelson Mandela High School. I'm quite tall and plumb. I look like my father. I've got his fair hair and dark brown eyes, but I have got my mother's personality. I live in a so small, healthier and mutually supportive family.

On weekdays, I always wake up early in the morning to do ablution and prepare myself for the Dawn prayer. I often take my breakfast at seven. After finishing the breakfast, I dress and go to school. I generally take the bus because it is a little bit far. I have classes from8 to11 in the morning and from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. I would like to be important in the near future. My dream is to be a video-photographer for weddings and social ceremonies.

I live with my family in Johannesburg, the richest city in South Africa. It's undergoing renovation since the early 2000s, motivated in its approach by the next World Cup Football Championship. Johannesburg has about 710.000 inhabitants. The city is known for hosting the Earth Summit 2002 and the FIFA World Cup to be held on Sunday, July 11th. I hear of a great number of Algerians will arrive in Johannesburg to support their national team. It would be a great surprise to see you among them. Never mind, the weather will be beautiful. Welcome!

Eliza.
